Success Stories

SALIU AKEEM OLARENWAJU

After losing his father while preparing to enter 200 level, Akeem faced serious financial challenges that threatened his education. Through a mentor, he discovered LASAL Foundation and received support for tuition and accommodation. The Foundation?s mentorship programme strengthened his focus, discipline and outlook on life. Today, Akeem is a proud LASAL alumnus working in the United States of America, grateful for the support that helped him complete his undergraduate studies.

ABAYOMI OYELEYE

Coming from a family of eight, Abayomi?s education was threatened when his father lost his job, leaving his mother as the family?s main source of income. Paying his university fees became a major challenge, and he feared he might not complete his studies. LASAL Foundation provided tuition support and a monthly stipend, allowing him to focus on his academics. He graduated with First Class honours and as the Best Graduating Student in his department. Today, he is pursuing his PhD in Portugal.

GENESIS ADEWUYI

Before LASAL Foundation, Genesis struggled financially to pursue her dream of becoming a veterinarian. After spending an extra year working to raise money for school and continuing with menial jobs after gaining admission, the demands of veterinary school made it difficult to balance work and her studies. LASAL Foundation provided the support she needed, covering her tuition, accommodation and monthly expenses, while also investing in her personal development through mentorship. The Foundation’s support gave her the stability to focus on her education and shaped her outlook on life. Today, Genesis has completed her Doctor of Veterinary Medicine degree, finished her NYSC, and is practising as a freelance veterinarian, with a particular interest in avian medicine. She describes LASAL as a place that helped turn her dream into reality.

Why Now?

Rising educational costs and increasing demand for scholarships require a larger response. NELFUND is not scratching the surface.

LAN : LASAL Alumni Network

The LASAL Impact Summit marks 10 years of sustained intervention in supporting students through financial barriers to education and expanding access to tertiary opportunities. It is convened to reflect on the Foundation's impact, celebrate beneficiaries and alumni, and strengthen connections across its growing community of scholars and partners. Beyond reflection, the summit serves as a strategic platform to consolidate lessons, deepen engagement with stakeholders across Nigeria and the diaspora, and mobilize support for the next phase of scale, sustainability, and greater educational impact.
